About Me

I recently completed the MigraCode course as a Full Stack Web Developer. I have acquired a deep knowledge of JavaScript, React, Databases and SQL, Node, HTML and CSS. Programming is my passion, I like solving problems and creating a useful product for the users. Currently, I'm engaged in the MusicWay project using TypeScript, I used technologies such as CSS and SAAS to create the design. I start studying AWS cloud for backend part of project. Used React for create interaction in user Interface. And also I started learning the basics of Java.
